No. 16.

THE STOCKMAN.

There is nothing so gay,
As when during May
The stockmen are having their round-up.
No longer in camp,
And in mud houses damp,
The jolly cow boys are bound up.

The Mexican pony
He looks proud and tony,
And seems to feel winter is over;
Cares a d... for his master,
And runs all the faster,
He is smelling the grass and the clover.

And many a beast
Is later shipped East
While westward goes many a dollar;
So stockmen come all
And dress up in the fall,
Real nobby from the feet to the collar.

As the clothingmen's "Boss"
Is well known Kahn & Schloss.
Where the stockmen all meet and are trading
So you'll purchase I guess,
At the firm "K. & S."
Whose goods wear forever without fading.
